INTERNATIONAL CREDIT UNION DAY

THE ALAMO CHAPTER OF CREDIT UNIONS

In keeping up with the credit union philosophy of "people helping people" and celebrating the credit union movement, your Alamo Chapter of Credit Unions conducted Random Acts of Kindness to coincide with International Credit Union Day. This was a day to show appreciation to member-owners within our communities and to also educate those who were not aware of the advantages of being a member-owner at a credit union. Here are a few photos we would like to share with you.

There's a story to be told in the photo to the right. President of ACCU, Edna Narum, had no idea the Random Act of Kindness was going to impact the woman sitting in the brown chair. The day prior, the woman found out that her husband's chemo treatment was working and his tumor was shrinking. Her daughter told her she needed to go out and finally do something for herself and then she met Edna and became engaged with the positive message credit unions are sending.

Rosanne Hernandez, ACCU Treasurer, had the opportunity to do some Random Acts of Kindness that were so moving for people she met that they said they would continue to pay it forward for others.

Joel Ceguera, Legislative Chair for ACCU, created a lot of smiles on ICU Day.

ACCU Secretary, Tiffany Mallare, was with a representative from Border FCU and Air Force FCU, talking to people in the community about the advantages of credit unions.

Andrew Squier, Vice-President of ACCU, went into his local HEB looking for people to help when he came across proud member of Randolph Brooks FCU and Firstmark CU, Ms. Sproles. She had been put on a heart monitoring machine, had to have emergency eye surgery, and battling other illnesses for quite some time and her budget, raising two children, on a teacher's salary was growing tight. She was in disbelief when Andrew decided to pay for her groceries, totaling well over $200. Ms. Sproles was one of many who were touched that day on behalf of credit unions.

Without the support from your credit union, these acts would not have been possible.
Thank you for being a member of the Alamo Chapter of Credit Unions.
